Corporate Relocation Council (CRC) Announces the Sandra M. Welbourn Service Award

Professional membership association Corporate Relocation Council (CRC), the Chicago, Illinois based regional relocation council, announced today the establishment of The Sandra M. Welbourn Service Award in loving memory of their former CRC Administrator. The award will recognize a CRC Member whose unsung contributions give back to the community and to the relocation industry. "We will always remember Sandy as the glue that held our association together. This award will annually recognize a CRC Member's contributions that lift up our association as Sandy did" said Past CRC President and former FMC Technologies Colleague to Sandy, Sylkia Negron, CRP, SGMS.

Nominations for the "Sandy" Award are now being accepted and are due by September 30th. Only CRC members are eligible to nominate or be nominated for the award. The award recipient will be someone who has demonstrated a meaningful contribution to the advancement of CRC, someone who moves, touches, and inspires our CRC membership. The recipient will also be admired for their good will, involvement, positivity, teamwork and for promoting an inclusive environment.

Please visit the CRC website www.crcchicago.org for more information about The Sandra M. Welbourn Service Award. Questions may be directed to the chairman of the award nominating committee; 2011 CRC Chairman of the Board Cathleen Podell, CRP at cathleen.podell@wellsfargo.com.

About CRC

CRC was founded over 30 years ago to provide an opportunity for corporate relocation administrators, human resource professionals, and relocation service providers to source educational events and more recently, participate in philanthropic endeavors. This is achieved by providing valuable programming during meetings held in the Chicago area and offering our members the opportunity to share knowledge and network with others in the relocation industry.
